

Johnny Cash - The Fourth Man In The Fire

Tom: D

(intro) D

Well, the prophet Daniel tells about three men who walked with God,

Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego,

before the wicked king they stood.

Now the king commanded them bound and thrown into the fiery coals that day,

but the fire was so hot the men were slain

that forced them on their way.

They wouldn't bend, they held on to the will of God so we are told,

would not bow, they would not bow their knees to the idols made of gold.

Would not burn, they were protected by the fourth man in the fire,

they wouldn't bend, they wouldn't bow, they wouldn't burn.

Now when the three were cast in and the king rose up

to witness their awful fate,

he began to tremble at what he saw,

and in astonished tones he spake.

Did we not cast three men bound

into the midst of the fire,

I believe I see four men unhurt,

unbound and walking' down there.

I see Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego,

in the fiery coals they trod,

but the form of the fourth man that I see

is like the Son of God.

They wouldn't bend, held on to the will of God so we are told,

would not bow, they would not bow their knees to the idols made of gold.

Would not burn, they were protected by the fourth man in the fire,

they wouldn't bend, wouldn't bow, they wouldn't burn.

They wouldn't bow, they held on to the will of God we are told,

they wouldn't bow, they would not bow their knees to the idols made of gold.

They wouldn't burn, they were protected by the fourth man in the fire,

they wouldn't bend, they wouldn't bow, they wouldn't burn.

They wouldn't bend, they wouldn't bow, they wouldn't burn.
