

Johnny Cash - The Lady Came From Baltimore

Tom: G

<sup>G</sup> The lady came from <sup>D</sup> Baltimore and all she wore was <sup>C</sup> lace
<sup>C</sup> She didn't know that I was poor, she never saw my place
<sup>G</sup> I was sent to steal her money, to take her rings and run
<sup>C</sup> Then I fell in love with the lady and got away with none

the lady's name was Susan Moore, her daddy read her law she didn't know that I was poor, livin' outside the law
 Her daddy said I was a thief and didn't marry her for love
 But I was Suzanne's true belief and I married her for love

<sup>Em</sup> I was sent to steal her money, to take her rings and run
<sup>C</sup> Then I fell in love with the lady and got away with none

Then I fell in love with the lady and got away with none

Instrumental

Key change to A

<sup>A</sup> The house she lived in had a wall to keep the robbers out <sup>D</sup> She never stopped to think it all that that's what I'm about <sup>A</sup> I was sent to steal her money, to take her rings and run <sup>D</sup> Then I fell in love with the lady and got away with none
