

Johnny Cash - The Lady Came From Baltimore

Tom: G

^G The lady came from ^D Baltimore and all she wore was ^C lace
^C She didn't know that I was poor, she never saw my place
^G I was sent to steal her money, to take her rings and run
^C Then I fell in love with the lady and got away with none

the lady's name was Susan Moore, her daddy read her law she didn't know that I was poor, livin' outside the law
 Her daddy said I was a thief and didn't marry her for love
 But I was Suzanne's true belief and I married her for love

^{Em} I was sent to steal her money, to take her rings and run
^C Then I fell in love with the lady and got away with none

Then I fell in love with the lady and got away with none

Instrumental

Key change to A

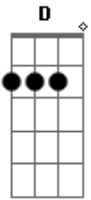

^A The house she lived in had a wall to keep the robbers out ^D She never stopped to think it all that that's what I'm about ^A I was sent to steal her money, to take her rings and run
^D Then I fell in love with the lady and got away with none
