

Johnny Cash - The Running Kind

Tom: D

(intro) D

1. I was born the running kind with leaving always on my mind, G

home was never home to me at anytime,

A every front door found me hoping I would find the back door open, A7

D there just had to be an exit for the running kind.

2. Within me there's a prison surrounding me alone, G

as real as any dungeon with its walls of stone,

A7 I know running's not the answer, though, running's been my nature,

D and a thing in me that keeps me moving on.

D 3. I was born the running kind with leaving always on my mind, G

home was never home to me at anytime,

A every front door found me hoping I would find the back door open, A7

there just had to be an exit for the running kind. D
