

Johnny Cash - The Wanderer

Tom: D

(intro) D

D
I went out walking through streets paved with gold,
G
D
I lifted some stones, saw the skin and bones of a city without a soul.

D
I went out walking under an atomic sky,
G
where the ground won't turn, and the rain it burns
D
like the tears when I said goodbye.

A
Yeah, I went with nothing, nothing but the thought of you,
Bm G A D
I went wandering.

D
I went drifting through the capitals of tin, G

D
where men can't walk, or freely talk, and sons turn their fathers in.

D
I stopped outside a church house, where the citizens like to sit,

D
they say they want the kingdom, but they don't want God in it.

D
I went out riding down that ol' eight lane,
G
I passed by a thousand signs looking for my own name.
Bm G D

I went with nothing, but the thought you'd be there, too, Bm G A D
looking for you.

D G
I went out there in search of experience,
Bm D
to taste and to touch and to feel as much
D
as a man can before he repents.

D
I went out searching, lookin' for one good man,
G
a spirit who would not bend or break,
who would sit at his father's right hand.

D
I went out walking with a Bible and a gun,

D
the word of God lay heavy on my heart, I was sure I was the one.

D
Now, Jesus, don't you wait up, Jesus, I'll be home soon, G D
yeah, I went out for the papers, told her I'd be back by noon.

A
Yeah, I left with nothing, but the thought you'd be there,
too,
Bm G A D

looking for you.
Bm G D

Yeah, I left with nothing, nothing but the thought of you,
Bm G A D
I went wandering.
