

Johnny Rivers - Stories To A Child

```
tom:
                                                              [Quarta Parte]
Intro: Am F G Am F Am F
Am F Am G F Am F E
Am F Am F G
                                                              Why can't you see?
       Am F Am A F Am F E
                                                              You'll never be free
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                            E E Am
                                                                            F
                                                              As long as you let this madness run
Am F Are you for real?

F Am
                                                              [Quinta Parte]
Can you still feel?

F
E
E Am
                                                              Where can you go?
Anything true and beautiful?
                                                                F Am
                                                              Flying so low
                                                                                                        E C
[Segunda Parte]
                                                              Everyone everyone knows you lost the sun
Where can you go?
                                                              [Sexta Parte]
F Am
Flying so low
     F
                            E E C
                                                              Telling stories to a child
Everyone knows you lost the sun
                                                              Won't changed the hand of hate
[Terceira Parte]
                                                              You've just got to stop it now
Burned body of a child
                                                              Tomorrow's going to be too late
           F
                                                              [Final] Am F Am F Am F Am F Am G F
Dying in the mothers hand
           F
                                                                     Am F E E
Am F Am F
Am F E E Am F
You've just got to stop it now
            G
A zombie is growing, man
Acordes
                                     ukulele-chords.com
```

F E E Am