

Jojo - Secret Love

Tom: C

the hole song based on these, just impro how you like it lyrics:

Boy you're so hard to believe
Boy you're so hard to believe

[verse 1]
Just a friend
That's all I've ever been to you
Oh, just a girl
Who wants to be the center of your world
But I ain't got much to offer
But my heart and soul
And I guess that's not enough
For you to notice me
I'm just a girl
And I guess that's all I'll ever be to you
To you, to you, you

[chorus]
I try to smile when I see other girls with you
Acting like everything is OK
But, oh
You don't know how it feels to be so in love
With someone who doesn't even know
My secret love

[verse 2]
In my dreams
I see us both together, constantly
Why can't you see
This love that's here for you, inside of me
Oh, what do I have to do
For you to notice this
You look at her with love

With me it's just friendship
I'm just your girl
And I guess that's all I'll ever be to you
To you, whoa

[chorus]
I try to smile when I see other girls with you
Acting like everything is OK
But, oh
You don't know how it feels to be so in love
With someone who doesn't even know
My secret love (my secret love)

[bridge]
What do you see in her
You don't see in me (don't see in me)
Boy, you're so hard to believe (so hard to believe)
Why do you show her love
But there's none for me
Boy, you don't make sense to me
Is it cause I don't have much to offer
But my heart and soul
And I guess that's not enough
For you to notice me
I'm just your girl
And I guess that's all I'll ever be to you
To you

[chorus]
I try to smile when I see other girls with you
Acting like everything is OK (everything ain't OK)
But, oh
You don't know how it feels to be so in love (so in love with you baby)
With someone who doesn't even know
My secret love (oh, yeah)

(oh, no, nah)
Boy you're so hard to believe
