

Jolie Holland - I Wanna Die

tom:

G

I wanna die A
D I wanna die A
E Down south Louisiana
D And the gray evening sky A

A
D I wanna die
D I don't care how A
E I'm getting out
E Down south Louisiana
D And the lonesome highway sound A

A
D Well there's a cajun lady
E Down in New Orleans
E There's a cajun lady
D And I saw her in my dream A

A
D Well if I'd held her in my arms, girls
E Oh and if I'd held her in my arms
E Our friendly love
D Might have kept my heart from harm A
A But I'm out here on this road, girls
D And I'm out here on the road A
E And I'm just a poor girl
D And I ain't got a home A

D And I wanna die A
E I don't care how

E I'm getting out
E Down south Louisiana
D And the lonesome highway sound A

D Oh I ain't got a home, girls A
D And I ain't got a home
A And it's through this world I ramble
D And it's through this world I roam A

A
D Well, it's through this world I ramble
E And as through this world I roam A
E I'm just a poor girl
D And I ain't got a home A

D And I wanna die A
E I wanna die
E Down south Louisiana
D And the gray evening sky A

D Well I wanna die
E I don't care how

E
E I'm getting out
E Down south Louisiana
D And the lonesome highway sound A
