

Jonas Brothers - Jersey

Tom: G
Intro: D G D G

D G D G
We weren't meant to get out of Jersey
Em A
Two stops past the parkway
Gb G
And that old cemetery
D G D G
We weren't born to grow in a hurry
Em A
But it rained hard in the garden state
Gb G
And we shot up like weeds
G A
Walking out of the red brick house
A G Gb
Yeah I keep hearing screaming
Em D A
"Please don't leave"

G A D
Like hey, where you goin'?
Em A
Don't you want to talk about it
Gb G Gb
Before you walk away
G A D
Like hey, where you goin'?
Em
When there's still
A D G
So much left to say
(D G)

D G D G
Hollywood's a lot like the bible
Em A
Both take faith and if you won't grace
Gb G
Then you got to believe
D G D G
Holding on was always a battle
Em A
Even the father, son and the holy ghost
Gb G
Don't always agree

G A
There was always room for one of us
Gb G
But not enough for three
Gb Em D A
So who is it gonna be

G A D
To saying "hey, where you goin'?"
Em A
Don't you want to talk about it
Gb G Gb
Before you walk away
G A D
Like hey, where you goin'? (Where you goin'?)
Em
When there's still
A C
So much left to say
G
To each other
A
If we're broken
C G A
Rather be honest than unspoken
C G
Words they can hurt but
D A
What could be worse
Em D A
Than that final curtain come down
G A D
Like hey, where you goin'?
G A
Don't you want to talk about it
Gb G Gb
Before you walk away
G A D
Like hey, where you goin'?
Em
When there's still
So much left
Gb Bm
Still so much left
G A D G
Still so much left to say
(D G D G)
