Hill there?s a house where no one lives
F C D E
So you take a big bag of you big city money there and buy it
Am E
Then at night when the house dark
C D
And you?re all alone there?s a noise upstairs
F C D
E
At the top of the stairs there?s a door so you take a deep breath and try it
F C Dm
Am
And the flashlight shows you something moving just inside the door
E
There?s a tattered dress and a feeling that you?ve felt somewhere before

[Refrão]

Am F
And there?s a creepy doll that always follows you
G Gb G Ab A
It?s got a ruined eye that?s always op-en
Am F
And there?s a creepy doll that always follows you
G Gb G Ab A
It?s got a pretty mouth to swallow you whole

[Segunda Parte]

Am E
So you scream and you close the door
C D
And you tell yourself it was just a dream
F C D E
In the morning you head into town cause you want to go antiquing
Am E
In the store there?s a strange old man
C D
With a wandering eye and a withered hand
F C D
E
When he hands you the old wooden box you can hear his old bones creaking
F C Dm Am
And you know what you will find inside the moment that you see
F C Dm E
That someone carved your name into the tarnished silver key

[Refrão]

Am F
And there?s a creepy doll that always follows you

[Ponte]

F C Dm Am
And when you come home late the doll is waiting there for you
F C Dm Am
And when you fix a snack the doll says it would like one too
F G F G
The doll is in your house and in your room and in your bed
F G F G
The doll is in your eyes and in your arms and in your head
C F D7 F
And you are crazy

[Terceira Parte]

Am E
Now it?s late and you head downstairs
C D
Cause you just can?t sleep so you make some tea
F C D
E
And the doll disapprovingly asks if you really need that much honey
Am E
You decide that you?ve had enough
C D
So you lock the doll in the wooden box
E
You put the box in the fireplace next to your bag of big city money
F C Dm
Am
As the smoke fills up your tiny room there?s nothing you can do
F C Dm E
It?s far too late, you see, the one inside the box is you

[Refrão]
