

Jorja Smith - Nobody But You

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

I've heard it all
 Our conversations got me feelin' I'm the fool
 Like I should've listened when they said that you
 Would treat me like you did, oh, yeah
 Said I did it all
 Situation makes me feel I'm not a man at all
 Swore I'd be there, swore that I'd catch your fall
 I guess I couldn't handle it, no

[Pré-Refrão]

And I know you probably thinkin' I ain't worth shit
 But I'd never want anyone to bring you any harm
 And I'd take it all back just to have you in my arms
 And I know for a fact who we were ain't who we are
 We are

[Refrão]

Don't think you cared about me
 Oh, girl, I care about you
 But you don't care 'bout nobody
 Nobody but you
 Don't think you cared about me
 Oh, girl, I care about you
 But you don't care 'bout nobody
 Nobody but you

[Segunda Parte]

I wish I had the time to run to you, not ruin your life?
 I'd never wrong you twice, I wanna make things right
 And maybe, you'll take me
 Hope you don't hate me
 Don't want to fight anymore
 Daytimes are silent as hell
 I wish that I could ignore all that you said
 If you can't find the time or space
 Then I don't have the words to say
 I wonder if the only peace we'll find
 Gonna be when you tell me, "Goodbye"?
 [Pré-Refrão]

And I know you probably thinkin' I ain't worth shit
 But I'd never want anyone to bring you any harm
 And I'd take it all back just to have you in my arms
 And I know for a fact who we were ain't who we are
 We are

[Refrão]

Don't think you cared about me
 Oh, girl, I care about you
 But you don't care 'bout nobody
 Nobody but you
 Don't think you cared about me
 Oh, girl, I care about you
 But you don't care 'bout nobody
 Nobody but you
