Tom: A

Time leads you far and wide
 The highest mountains, the deepest sighs
 Sometimes you end up places you
 Never imagined going to
 Sometimes you only want to hide

So if you ever find yourself alone
 Come 'round there's always room for one more
 When the wind is blowing cold you know
 All you gotta do?s knock on my door

Take my hand
 Side by side
 Come rain or shine we'll take it in our stride
 It doesn't matter where we go
 We'll find a place we can call home
 It doesn't matter where we go
 I know a place we can call home

(A Bm Gbm D)
 (A Bm Gbm E)

When the leaves begin to fall

When summer's fruit starts to grow old
 Sometimes the magic starts to fade
 It's true that everything must change
 All that glitters isn't gold

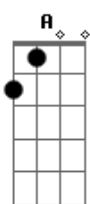

So if you ever find yourself alone
 Come 'round there's always room for one more
 When the wind is blowing cold you know
 All you gotta do?s knock on my door

Take my hand
 Side by side
 Come rain or shine we'll take it in our stride
 It doesn't matter where we go
 We'll find a place we can call home
 It doesn't matter where we go
 I know a place we can call home

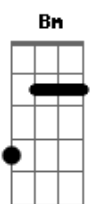

(A Bm Gbm D)
 (A Bm Gbm E)

So if you ever find yourself alone
 Come 'round there's always room for one more
 When the wind is blowing cold you know
 All you gotta do?s knock on my door
