

Josh Woodward - I'll Be Right Behind You, Josephine

Tom: Ab

(forma dos acordes no tom de E)

Capostrate na 4ª casa

Intro: C Em C Em

C Em
I'll be right behind you, Josephine
C Em
I won't leave you waiting in between
F Am
And the cigarette you bummed from me is almost burning out
F G
You suck it till your fingers burn, then you throw it to the ground

C Em
I'll be right behind you, Josephine
C Em
Even after everything we've seen
F Am
In this sterile room with blinding lights and faces pointing down
F G
I only want to scream but still I just can't make a sound

C E7
Now hold my hand, I'll hold my breath
Am F
There's nothing in this world we really own
C E7
And Jesus Christ, if you tore my heart out
Am F
The only thing I'd feel is less alone
(less alone)

C Em
I'll be right behind you, Josephine
C Em
I won't leave you waiting in this dream
F Am
While you watch the people speaking words you can't quite comprehend
F G
You ask me if I'd pinch you but my fingers wouldn't bend
C Em
I'll be right behind you, Josephine
C Em

Just like I was when we were seventeen
F Am
I guess that's only been a year but still it feels like 34
F G
I don't feel like I am living in the same skin anymore

C E7
Now hold my hand, I'll hold my breath
Am F
There's nothing in this world we really own
C E7
And Jesus Christ, if you tore my heart out
Am F
The only thing I'd feel is less alone
(less alone)

(C Em C Em F Am F G)
C Em
I'll be right behind you, Josephine
C Em
Even when my soul's an amputee
F Am
And my bleeding heart is sinking in the lake inside my chest
F G
So I grab what I can cling to and I leave behind the rest

C E7
Now hold my hand, I'll hold my breath
Am F
There's nothing in this world we really own
C E7
And Jesus Christ, if you tore my heart out
Am F
The only thing I'd feel is less alone

C E7
Now hold my hand, and take my breath
Am F
And leave behind the things you'll never own
C E7
And Jesus Christ, please tear my heart out
Am F
I wanna feel a little less alone
F
Less alone
(C)

Acordes

