D A
There's a little girl in Skibbereen, with flowing hair and ragged jeans

Em G
And floating in a vivid dream, as classes go by

D A
And every day at 3 o'clock, she's out the door and down the block

G A D
And hurries to the river dock, a gleam in her eyes

G D
And everything's fine for the day

G A
There's nothing to get in the way of her smile

G Em
There's never a care for tomorrow

A D
Cuz Molly's a princess today

The barricade's a castle wall, 47 miles tall

Em G
The river's got a waterfall, the moat is so deep

D A
The cedar trees are canopies, a ceiling made of needle leaves

G A D
A buzzing fleet of honeybees is guarding the keep

G D
And no one can take this away

G A
What lives in her mind will remain there to stay

G Em
There's never a care for tomorrow

Cuz Molly's a princess today

When your heart grows up and gets old

Em A
The dreams of your past never seem to quite last

D B7
In a future that's so far away

Em A
But here in the place, you know Molly? is a princess today

D A
In little while, it's dinnertime, she leaves the kingdom in her mind

Em G
A bookmark in the storyline, a chapter is done

D A
The mystery of what will be, tomorrow, when the clock strikes three

G A D
There beneath the cedar trees, the princess will come

G D
And there's nothing that she couldn't do

G A
When she closes her eyes, and imagines the view

D Em
There's never a care for tomorrow
