

Joy Again - Necromancer

Tom: E

Oh necromancer

Put a spell on me

With a kisses so sweet, they rot my teeth

Oh necromancer

Why are you so far away

Another day rolls by without me kissing your face

Oh girl won't you meet me in the city
F#M

The street lights and corner store signs make you look so pretty

Oh when will you just be with me

I'm so infatuated

I'd swim across the sea

( A B E Gbm )

I guess you're just fading all the way

I guess I have nothing much to say

You can call me

Tell me if you're okay

I just wish I could see you everyday
