Intro: Dbm B A Gbm Abm
              DY definitely Krazy
                                                                  Both hands in the air as I scream out prayers
[Refrão]
                                                                  My demons show their face in the midnight air
Dbm
                                                                  [Segunda Partel
Abandon all ships, it's about to go down
I'm Titanic (Titanic)
                                                                  Set sail in the codeine bottle, I'ma drown in it, drown in it
There's a lot going on in my head right now
                                                                  Shit fills me up, but whatever goes up goes down in it, down
    Gbm
              Abm
But I manage (I manage) in it
     Dbm
Good heart, good soul, both been in bad hands
                                                                  At the end of the day, I'm blessed, oh yes, crack a smile with
I can deal damage (yeah, real damage)
                                                                  it, smile with it
Both hands in the air as I scream out prayers
                                                                  Now frownin' again, life goes so fast, watch it blow in the Gbm
                                  Abm
My demons show their face in the midnight air
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                  Ahm
                                                                  Can't get time back, I been beggin' for it
Just got a new house, gotta hide the skeletons in the closet
                                                                  [Pré-Refrão]
And keep 'em there, really tryna forget about 'em
                                                                  Dbm
                                                                    Fucked up, I did
They tell me God watchin' over me, I don't doubt it
                                                                    Oh, fucked up, I am
                           Ahm
But I can see 'em gettin' tired of me, sinnin' and wildin'
                                                                                  Ghm
                                                                    Here we go again (Here we go again)
Don't know what to do with myself these days
                                                                  [Refrão]
Young rich nigga, I done fell in love with the pain
                                                                   Dhm
But all this money don't rid me of my pain
                                                                  Abandon all ships, it's about to go down
But everywhere I go, I could make it precipitate, rain
                                                                  I'm Titanic (Titanic)
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                  There's a lot going on in my head right now
                                                                  But I manage (I manage)
 Fucked up, I did
                                                                       Dbm
                                                                  Good heart, good soul, both been in bad hands
 Fucked up, I am
                                                                  I can deal damage (yeah, real damage)
 Come down, I can't
                                                                  Both hands in the air as I scream out prayers
                Abm
 Shit, here we go again
                                                                           Ghm
                                                                                                     Ahm
                                                                  My demons show their face in the midnight air
