

Júlia Monerat - So Fast

Life went by so fast!
 I got so many things
 But in some moments
 They look so little
 I cannot regret
 I put so many jewels
 But in some moments
 I feel so small
 Could I have done more?
 Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?
 And, and you?
 Would you have been happier without me?
 Could I have done more?
 Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?
 And, and you?
 Could I have made her happier?
 After so long
 That twinkle in your eyes
 But in some moments
 I still miss you so much

tom:
 Could I have done more?
 Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?
 And, and you?
 Would you have been happier without me?
 Do you remember him?
 When I arrived at your door
 There it was, inside your eyes
 Lighting up your smile
 Does that glow still live there?
 Can you help me find it?
 I need to make sure I made you happy
 Even though life went by fast
 Could I have done more?
 Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?
 And, and you?
 Would you have been happier without me?
 Could I have done more?
 Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?
 And, and you?
 Would you have been happier without me?
 Could I have done more?
 Could it be possible for me to be happier than I am now?
 And, and you?
 Could I have made her happier?
