It's the eye in the sky, where no eagles fly

The wolf will cry sheep as they take him away
We plot in our sleep but follow orders all day
The rhythm is for you but the song is for me

The meaning might be secret but the melody is free

Business, business, I forget
Pray for predators, I guess
Uh-oh, uh-oh, here we go, all our future's thru that door

Future future's come to this, everybody cheats I guess
Let's go down to Mexico, there's a couple guys I know
All our future's come to this, I don't want my friends to know
All our future's come to this, I don't want our friends
