I'll hold your music here inside my hands
                           tom:
                                                                                   Bb
                                                              We say we're friends, we play pretend
                         Bb
Step into my world
                                                              You're more to me, we're everything
                                                               Dm
                                                                                 Bb
Bittersweet love story about a girl
                                                              Our voices rise and soar so high
       Bb
Shook me to the core
                                                              We come to life when we're
Voice like an angel, I've never heard before
                                                              In perfect harmony
                                                              Dm Bb
Woah, woah
Here in front of me
                                                              Perfect harmony
Shining so much brighter than I have ever seen
Dm Bb
                                                              Woah, woah
Life can be so mean
                                                              Perfect harmony
But when he goes I know he doesn't leave
                                                              I feel your rhythm in my heart, yeah
The truth is finally breaking through
                                                              You are my brightest, burning star, woah-woah
Two worlds collide when I'm with you
                                                              I never knew a love so real (so real)
                   Bb
Our voices rise and soar so high
                                                              We're heaven on earth, melody and words
We come to life when we're
                                                              When we are together we're

Woah, woah

You set me free
                                                              We play pretend
You and me together is more than chemistry
                                                              You're more to me
