

Justin Bieber - One More Lonely Boy

Tom: E

There's gonna be one more lonely boy,

One more lonely boy

There's gonna be one more lonely boy,

So many I told yous and start overs and shoulders that I I've cried on before

So many promises but nothing changes, It still like it was before

Your bags were packed, but I took them back, thinking that I couldn't be alone,

But no more

Cause I fell for this before,

You just one more lonely boy

OH, oh , oh,

You say your different but your acting like all the rest,

Thinking youre the best,

That I can get,

No, oh,

I am just fine on my own,

I am alright, without you ,by my side

Your just one more lonely boy

One more lonely boy,

A

One more lonely, boy,

One more lonely boy

Theres gonna be one more lonely boy

Putting yourself first

Forgetting what I'm worth,

You'll never take my hand, your gonna be an old and lonely man

Christmas wasn't merry

14th of February not one of them spent with you

Couldn't even call, and worst of all, I found out she was with you

And the photographs, in the garbage out back, cause I can't even look at you

No more,

I fell for this before,

OH, oh , oh,

You say you're different but your acting like all the rest,

Thinking you're the best,

That I can get,

No, oh,

I am just fine on my own,

I'm alright, without you ,by my side

Your just one more lonely boy
