

Justin Moore - Grandpa

tom:
 Capotraste na 1ª casa
 Intro:

G
 You stood on that bank when I got baptized
Em7
 Gave me a thirty thirty when I turned nine
Cadd9 G
 At sixteen you caught me drinking out in the barn
G
 I could hear you cheering when we won state
Em7
 And you held my hand at Grandma's grave
Cadd9 G
 And I'll always be thankful you never sold the farm

Cadd9 D
 Grandpa you stood so tall
G Cadd9
 Chewed that Red Man, wore overalls
D Em7
 You were the same man on Sunday morning as Saturday night
Cadd9 D
 Five foot six to the top of your hat
Em7 Cadd9
 But when you talked bout the war thought you were Superman
D Em7
 American born simple man with a southern drawl
Cadd9 D G
 You walk the walk, you talk the talk, Grandpa

( G D G )

G
 You still swear Roosevelt was the best
Em7
 That a home grown tomato tastes better than the rest
Cadd9 G
 And fifty years goes too fast with a woman you love

Well this life I've chose is gettin' busy now
Em7
 But i know where to go when i need to slow down
Cadd9
 And when I walk up on your front porch

Cadd9 D
 Grandpa you stood so tall
Em7 Cadd9
 Chewed that Red Man, wore overalls
D Em7
 You were the same man on Sunday morning as Saturday night
Cadd9 D
 Five foot six to the top of your hat
Em7 Cadd9
 But when you talked bout the war thought you were Superman
D Em7
 American born simple man with a southern drawl
Cadd9 D G
 You walk the walk, you talk the talk, Grandpa
Cadd9 D Em7
 Yeah American born a dirt road man with that slow southern drawl
D G
 Now keep walkin' the walk and talkin' the talk Grandpa
