

JVKE - Catch Me

tom:
Gm

Last week, been a whole year, but it feel like last week

When I was your boy, fallin' hard in the backstreets

But you were there to catch me

Then I grew up and the Sun got cloudy

Used to feel the Sun on my skin, yeah, it's sappy

That's the last time I was truly happy

So I'm asking

If I fell down right now, would you catch me?

If I fell down right now, would you

If I fell down right now, would you catch me, catch me?

Baby, would you catch me?

I've been hurt before

Are you sure that you're still gonna catch me? Yeah

If I fell down right now, would you catch me, catch me?

Baby, would you catch me?

I'ma let go, all I know is, I need you to catch me

Would you catch me?

I ain't written one love song since she left me

Trauma in my memories

When I try to hold you my body doesn't let me

So, baby, would you catch me?

Oh, baby, would you catch me?

Baby, would you catch me?

Make it alright

I ain't fell in love in a really long time

Would you catch me?

Look in my eyes, tell me we're something new

I got issues with my trust

I don't wanna fall in love

So I guess I'm falling out of it

Come help me adjust

I got issues with my, I got issues from my past

Come and put them in the past

'Cause, baby, I'm falling fast

Like three digits on my dash

Swervin' through the backstreets

Don't you let me crash, please

Baby, would you catch me?

Baby, would you

If I fell down right now, would you catch me? Yeah

If I fell down right now, would you

If I fell down right now, would you catch me, catch me?

Baby, would you catch me?

I'ma let go, all I know is, I need you to catch me

Would you catch me?

I ain't written one love song since she left me

Trauma in my memories

When I try to hold you my body doesn't let me

So, baby, would you catch me?

Baby, would you

If I fell down right now, would you catch me? Yeah

If I fell down right now, would you
