

JVKE - HERO (feat. Martin Garrix)

tom:
 Can't you see you're not ready?
 My arms are getting heavy
 From the weight of the world
 It's up to me and I'm getting sweaty
 Is it too much to hold?
 A thousand voices whisper noise
 They plan my fall from grace
 Woah, oh, I know
 Say you want a hero, you don't
 Say you want a savior
 Pull you off the ground
 Then you wanna blame me
 When you're falling down
 Woah, oh, I know
 Don't wanna be your hero, oh, no
 When's it gonna sink in
 That we're sinking and falling apart?
 'Cause love don't last in the dark
 Can't you see you got old?
 You waited too long and you let time go
 Place your bets when it all comes down
 Fold your cards and you blame the house
 A thousand voices whisper noise
 They plan my fall from grace
 Woah, oh, I know
 Say you want a hero, you don't

Say you want a savior
 Pull you off the ground
 Then you wanna blame me
 When you're falling down
 Woah, oh, I know
 Don't wanna be your hero, oh, no
 When's it gonna sink in
 That we're sinking and falling apart?
 'Cause love don't last in the dark
 Woah, oh
 Woah, oh
 Love don't last in the dark
 Woah, oh
 Woah, oh
 Can't you see you got old?
 Place your bets when it all comes down
 Fold your cards and you blame the house
 Woah, oh, I know
 Say you want a hero, you don't
 Say you want a savior
 Pull you off the ground
 Then you wanna blame me
 When you're falling down
 Woah, oh, I know
 Don't wanna be your hero, oh, no
 When's it gonna sink in
 That we're sinking and falling apart?
 'Cause love don't last in the dark
