

Kailee Morgue - Fuck U

Tom: B
Intro: B Ebm Abm
B Ebm Abm

[Primeira Parte]

He calls me a hot head, then he sets me on fire
He said that it's my fault that he's a liar
Then he's blushing red when he's on the phone
He said "don't worry about it, leave me alone"

[Pré-Refrão]

He said you're only as good as you are when you are with me
So I hope you're no better, know better than to leave

[Refrão]

I said hey you, with your world painted blue
I said fuck you, I was the brightest light you ever knew
And next time you call me, yelling on the phone
And I'll say fuck you and leave me alone

[Segunda Parte]

Got your car running, like you're ready to go
I'll be waiting for that apology when you come home
Then we'll talk it out 'til it comes to an end

Then we'll wake up and do it again

[Pré-Refrão]

He said you're only as good as you are when you are with me
So I hope you're no better, know better than to leave

[Refrão]

I said hey you, with your world painted blue
I said fuck you, I was the brightest light you ever knew
And next time you call me, yelling on the phone
And I'll say fuck you and leave me alone

[Ponte]

Cross my heart and hope to die
No happy ending for you and I
Cross my heart and hope to die
No happy ending for you and I

[Refrão]

I said hey you, with your world painted blue
I said fuck you, I was the brightest light you ever knew
And next time you call me, yelling on the phone
And I'll say fuck you and leave me alone
