

kaleah lee - Where'd The Time Go?

G tom: [Intro] C7M G7M

C7M
Micro-awareness and the passing of time
G7M
Wrapped in a ribbon and the lines by your eyes
C7M
Notice the hollowing out of your cheeks
G7M
How you've grown up to desire nights quiet and meek
C7M
A bright start to your day

And the goldmine of sleep
G7M
How you welcome the tears

How the juice switched to tea
C7M
And how the big things, they are shrinking

And the small things they've grown
G7M

With the people and the places

That you no longer know
C7M
And how the way your mom speaks

Wove it's way through your tongue
G7M
And the hope that your laugh

Might be keeping her young
C7M
Yet you argue and you bicker

And you just want your space
G7M
But now you're far

Rippled reflections flicker back your dad's face
C7M G7M
Where'd the time go?
C7M G7M
Where'd the time go?
C7M G7M
Where'd the time go?
C7M G7M
Where'd the time go?
