

kaleah lee - Where'd The Time Go?

G tom: [Intro] C G

C
Micro-awareness and the passing of time
G
Wrapped in a ribbon and the lines by your eyes
C
Notice the hollowing out of your cheeks
G
How you've grown up to desire nights quiet and meek
C
A bright start to your day

And the goldmine of sleep
G
How you welcome the tears

How the juice switched to tea
C
And how the big things, they are shrinking

And the small things they've grown
G

With the people and the places
That you no longer know
C
And how the way your mom speaks

Wove it's way through your tongue
G
And the hope that your laugh

Might be keeping her young
C
Yet you argue and you bicker

And you just want your space
G
But now you're far

Rippled reflections flicker back your dad's face
C G
Where'd the time go?
C G
Where'd the time go?
C G
Where'd the time go?
C G
Where'd the time go?

( C G )
