

Kali Uchis - Blue

tom:

Bm

[Primeira Parte]

I'm not broken yet
 But sometimes it sure feels like it
 When you treat me like a stranger
 How do you get cold so fast?
 'Cause there ain't much to make me ever walk away, yeah
 Guess I love you way too hard
 But you're breaking my heart with your body language
 Wanna feel your hands on my waist

[Refrão]

'Cause what's the point of all the pretty things in the world
 if I don't have you?
 Yeah, there's no point of much anything in the world if I don't have you
 Said, what's the point of all the pretty things in the world
 if I don't have you?
 I guess that's my own fault for makin' you my world, now all I
 feel is blue

[Segunda Parte]

Ice-cold, actin' funny with your phone and Now I can't control my attitude
 Sorry, if I ruined your dinner party
 Got my things together, I'll go home
 See, I'm praying God will send me an angel
 Will the angels bring me back to you?
 Every single second missin' you is painful
 I know I could go and find someone new

[Ponte]

But they would never be you
 Now all I feel is blue
 All I feel is blue, blue, blue, blue

[Refrão Final]

'Cause what's the point of all the pretty things in the world
 if I don't have you?
 Yeah, there's no point of much anything in the world if I don't have you
 Said, what's the point of all the pretty things in the world
 if I don't have you?
 I guess that's my own fault for makin' you my world, now all I
 feel is blue
