

Kat Cunning - King of Shadow

Nobody knows you better than me
Better than the lace you wear
Every single detail chantilly
Every curl inside your hair
And I'm
Falling in, falling into the light
Anything you want to do
You and me, you and me intertwined
I can be the king of shadow
Everywhere you turn I'm chasing you
Tell you where to go I follow
Everywhere you run I'm stuck on you
I can be the dark, you can look right through me
In a flash of love, we are just one body
I can be the king of shadow
I can be the king of shadow
Shadow shadow
Shadow shadow
Shadow shadow
Shadow shadow
Shadow shadow

I've seen you with all your lovers who fail
To please you like I know I can
Hold me below the covers and say
Tonight you'll let me be your hands
And I'm
Falling in, falling into the light
Anything you want to do
You and me, you and me intertwined
I can be the king of shadow
Everywhere you turn I'm chasing you
Tell you where to go I follow
Everywhere you run I'm stuck on you
I can be the dark, you can look right through me
In a flash of love, we are just one body
I can be the king of shadow
I can be the king of shadow
Shadow shadow
Shadow shadow
Shadow shadow
Shadow shadow
Shadow shadow
I can be the dark, you can look right through me
In a flash of love, we are just one body
I can be the king of shadow
I can be the king of shadow
