Tom: E
                                                                The best you ever had
   (intro) E Dbm Gbm B
                                                                The best you ever had
                                                                          В
You used to get it in your fishnets
                                                                Is just a memory and those dreams
Now you only get it in your night dress
                                                                But as daft as they seem
Discarded all the naughty nights for niceness
                                                                As daft as they seem
Landed in a very common crisis
                                                               My love when you dream them up
                                                                                 Dbm
Everything's in order in a black hole
                                                                Oh, where did you go?
                                                                Where did you go?
Nothing seems as pretty as the past though
                                                                             Abm Gbm
                                                                Where did you go? Woah.
The Bloody Mary's lacking her Tabasco
Remember when you used to be a rascal?
                                                                ( E Dbm Gbm B )
Oh the boy's a slag
                                                                Falling about
                                                                You took a left off Last Laugh Lane
The best you ever had
                                                                             Е
                                                                You were just sounding it out
The best you ever had
                                                                          Gbm
Is just a memory and those dreams
                                                                You're not coming back again.
But as daft as they seem
                                                                Falling about
              Ghm
As daft as they seem
                                                                          Ghm
                                                                You took a left off Last Laugh Lane
My love when you dream them up...
                                                                You were just sounding it out
                                                                          Ghm
Flicking through a little book of sex tips
                                                                You're not coming back again.
Remember when the boys were all electric?
                                                                You used to get it in your fishnets
Now when she's told she's gonna get it
                                                                Now you only get it in your night dress
I'm guessing that she'd rather just forget it
                                                                Discarded all the naughty nights for niceness
Clinging to not getting sentimental
                                                                Landed in a very common crisis
Said she wasn't going but she went still
                                                                Everything's in order in a black hole
Likes her gentlemen not to be gentle
                                                                Nothing seems as pretty as the past though
Was it a Mecca dauber or a betting pencil?
                                                                That Bloody Mary's lacking in Tabasco
Oh the boy's a slag
                                                                Remember when he used to be a rascal?
