

Katie Melua - Spider's Web

Tom: C

Acordes: Am E F C Dm

Am E
If a black man is racist, is it okay
Am E
When it's the white man's racism that made him that way
F C
Because the bully's the victim they say
Dm G
By some sense they're all the same

Am
Because the line between
E
Wrong and right
F
Is the width of a thread
C G
From a spider's web

Am E
The piano keys are black and white
F C
G
But they sound like a million colours in your mind

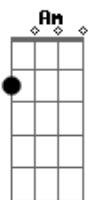

Am E
I could tell you to go to war
Am E
Or I could march for peace and fighting no more
F C
How do I know which is right
Dm G
And I hope he does when he sends you to fight

Am
Because the line between E wrong and right
F
Is the width of a thread
Dm G
from a spider's web
