

Katy B - Go Away

Tom: B

B
I open my eyes, watch you lying there
Ebm

The sun beating on your skin

B
It became an unwritten rule with you
Ebm

Somehow I always seem to give in

B
Why you got to be so strong

Abm
Your stubbornness is cruel

Ebm
You know what I'd do for you

And I know where you'd walk for me

Abm
But we gotta speak it

Ebm
Oh so quietly

B
If you could please just go away

Abm
Leave me alone

Ebm
Yeah, fly away
Into the stars

B
Never see your face

Abm
It would make my world such a better place

B
You open your eyes, watch me lying there

Ebm
What I'd give to know what you see

B
What I'd give to know what you feel, know what you think

Ebm
If only I could step in your skin

B
But you see I already know

Abm
It'll end in tears

Ebm
When you carry out all my fears

Being here's a dangerous game

Abm
I'll end up insane

Ebm
And only have myself to blame

B
If you could please just go away

Abm
Leave me alone

Ebm
Yeah, fly away
Into the stars

B
Never see your face

Abm
It would make my world such a better place

Ebm
If you could please just

It would make my world such a better place

B
I know that you care

But it's never enough

Abm
I know you'll be there
But it's never enough

B
Please just play fair

Abm
I don't ask you for love

Ebm
'Cause I don't need no empty words here

B
I know that you care

But it's never enough

Abm
I know you'll be there
But it's never enough, oh

B
Please just be fair

Abm
I don't ask you for love

Ebm
'Cause I don't want your empty words here

Oh

B
If you could please just go away

Abm
Leave me alone

Ebm
Yeah, fly away
Into the stars

B
Never see your face (never see your face, oh)

Abm
It would make my world such a better place

Ebm
If you could please just go away

B
If you could please just go away

Abm
Leave me alone

Ebm
Yeah, fly away

Into the stars

B
Never see your face (oh, I wish never met youuu)

Abm
It would make my world such a better place

Ebm
If you could please just

Go away (go away)

Abm
Leave me alone

Ebm
Yeah, fly away (fly away)

Into the stars

B
Never see your face

Abm
It would make my world such a better place

Ebm
If you could please just
