

Katy Perry - I Think I'm Ready

Tom: C

(intro) C

(verso 1)

C I'm used to opening my own doors and splitting the checks
The introduced me F was always just a friend F
I bought a new dress C
he never noticed C Always falling for these C bad boys such a challenge
I'm getting tired of F
cleaning up after them F
I think I'm ready C
to be a woman C

(chorus 1)

G Oh love F
I think I'm ready C
ready for it C

(verso 2)

C
You were such a surprise an unexpected gift
Said I was pretty F
and I believed it F
Not really used to C all this attention C Told myself I don't deserve you
And this is just a phase Could I get used to F being loved the right way F

I want to argue but C
there is nothing to say C

(chorus 2)

G Oh love F
I think I'm ready C
ready for it C
ready for it G
Oh love I F
think I'm ready F

(bridge)

F Cause you send me flowers when there's no occasion Am Yeah we talk for hours
you still want to listen Dm Won't hold it against me if I Ab C
just need you to hold me tonight C (verso 3)

My mother always told me that you'd show up one day
(So scared) to feel this way

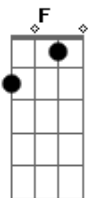

(chorus 3)

G
But love F
I think I'm ready C
ready for it C
ready for it G
Oh love I F
think I'm ready G
Oh love I F (hold) think I'm ready F
