

Katy Perry - It Takes Two

Tom: Ab

(com acordes na forma de
Capostrate na 1ª casa
Intro: G

G)
Is Mercury, in retrograde
Or is that the excuse
That I've always made 'cause
I wanna blame you,
But I can only blame myself
Yeah, it's easy to throw you under the bus
I'll call you crazy, while filling my cup
I, say these things to hurt you
But I, only hurt myself

Oh, I can only take responsibil-i -ty, for me

It takes two, two sides to every story
Not just you, I can't keep ignoring
I admit, half of it

I'm not that innocent, oh yeah

It takes two, two sides to every story
Not just me, you can't keep ignoring
But let me be, first baby, to say I'm sorry (I'm sorry)

I face my demons, yeah, I paid my dues
I had to grow up, I wish you could too

I, wanted to save you, but I can only save myself

(-one strum)
Oh, I can only be the change you want to see
Yeah, to see

It takes two, two sides to every story
Not just you, I can't keep ignoring
I admit, half of it
I'm not that innocent yeah, oh

It takes two, two sides to every story
Not just me, you can't keep ignoring
But let me be, first baby, to say I'm sorry (I'm sorry)

I point my finger but it does me no good, I

Look in the mirror and it tells me the truth, yeah
Why all these lessons always learned the hard way
Is it too late to change, oh

It takes two, two sides to every story
Not just you, I can't keep ignoring

And I admit, half of it
I'm not that innocent, oh

It takes two, two sides to every story
Not just me, you can't keep ignoring
But let me be, first baby, to say I'm sorry (I'm sorry)
