

Katy Perry - It's Ok To Believe

Tom: C

(intro)

This was big for us forever changing you and me
 Allow me to ambiguous though I cant stand ambiguity
 I'll beat around this burning bush trying to put the fire out
 When all the shoving came to push
 The word just stayed stuck in my mouth

And it's ok to believe in something, it's alright to live your life for someone... ba da ba dum
 It's ok to believe in something its alright to live your life for someone... ya ba da ba dum

So we might lose but im glad I didn't leave
 I wear my soul on my shoes, if not my heart upon my sleeve
 If I'm not allowed to speak aloud of what you really mean to me

Then I'll type it bold when it spell it out I-T-S L-0-V-E

And it's ok to believe in something, it's alright to live your life for someone... ba da ba dum

So why do I hesitate wait for my to break second guess every move that I make Second guess every move that you make

(This was big for us, changing you and me)

Oh, it's ok to believe in something, it's alright to live your life for someone ya... oh ooh yaaaa
 It's ok to believe in something, it's alright to live your life for someone. Yeah ba da ba dum

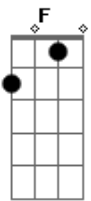

Oh, somebody tell me it's ok to believe in something, it's alright to live your life for someone yea ba da ba dum

Stand up for what you believe in take pride for who you are
 Stand up for what you believe in take pride for who you are
