Katy Perry - Resilient

                        tom:
                  G
             G                      Am              F
I know there's gotta be rain if I want the rainbows
   G                    Am              F
And I know the higher I climb, the harder the wind blows
   G                 Am                        F
Yeah, I've gone to sleep, night after night, punching a pillow
           G                Am                  F
But do you know the darker the night, the brighter the stars glow

 F            C        Em           Am
'Cause I am resilient, a full flower moment
 F          C                 G
Won't let the concrete hold me back, oh, no
 F        C    Em            Am
I am resilient, born to be brilliant
 F           C                    G
You'll see me grow right through the cracks, yeah
                          F              C
 G
'Cause you're gonna watch this flower grow right through the cracks

  G                  Am                  F
I've got to shed all this skin if I want the distance
           G              Am              F
Let the Sun in, pull out the weeds and focus my vision
          G                  Am            F
'Cause there?s no mistakes, just bends and breaks and friction
          G               Am         F
But do you know the hotter the fire, the purer the gold is?

Won't let the concrete hold me back, oh, yeah

I am resilient, born to be brilliant
 F           C                 G
I'm gonna grow right through the cracks, oh

Am
'Cause I died every winter
          F
But survived all the weather
          C
Look at me now, look at me now
                  G
I'm in full bloom, yeah
Am
They tried to poison the water
          F
But I was a little stronger
Look at me now, look at me now
                  G
Light up the room, oh, yeah

 F            C        Em           Am
'Cause I am resilient, a full flower moment
 F          C                 G
Won't let the concrete hold me back, oh, yeah
 F        C    Em            Am
I am resilient, born to be brilliant
 F           C                 G
I'm gonna grow right through the cracks, oh
                      F              C                   G
You'rve gonna watch this flower grow right through the cracks
