Estrofe 1:
                                                                  All his money can't buy me a time machine no
                                                                  Can't replace you with a million rings no
Summer after high school when we first met
                                                                  I shoulda told you what you meant to me
We make out in you mustang to radio head
                                                                  Cause now I pay the price
And on my 18th birthday we bought matching tattoos
Used to steal your parent's liquor and climb to the roof
Talk about our future like we had a clue
                                                                In another life I would be your girl
Never planned that one day I'd be losing you
                                                                We keep all our promises be us against the world
