

Keane - The Starting Line

Tom: C

Intro: 2x: C Em G C

C Em G
 This town was a lovers stage but now you can't recognize
 C Em
 The streetlights that are daggers to your eyes
 Dm Am F
 You can't find your bearings you're slipping into the ground
 F G
 The scene has no color and no sound

C Em G
 You still believe in me after the things I've done
 C Em G
 You fear for what we have become
 Dm Am F
 The ground is uneven we stumble from day to day
 F Am
 But shelter where it's easy

G
 I know your feet are like lead but you've gotta get on the way.

F C Em Am
 Drag your heart up to the starting line
 F C G
 Forget the ghosts that make you old before your time
 F C Em Am
 It's too easy to get left behind.

Dm
 I know you've been kicked around

C Em G C
 But tie up your thoughts and lay them down on me

C Em G
 Each heart is a paper kite blown around by the breeze
 C Em
 Love won't rest till it brings you to your knees
 Dm Am F

C
 Some find it easy some will never even know
 F Am
 You think you've done your journey
 Em G
 Then you stumble and find that there's such a long way to go.

F C Em Am
 Drag your heart up to the starting line
 F C G
 Forget the ghosts that make you old before your time
 F C Em Am
 It's too easy to get left behind.

Dm
 I know you've been kicked around

F
 You wanna be lost and not be found

Bb2
 But let's take the back way into town

F C Em G C
 And drink to the bad times lay them down on me.

C Em G
 Girl I still believe in you you're too good to fall so low
 C Em G
 We're gonna find a better life I know
 Dm Am F
 Things will be clearer as soon as we make a start

F C Am
 We'll be that much nearer
 Em G
 We're too old to just stand here waiting to break apart

F C Em Am
 Drag your heart up to the starting line
 F C G
 Forget the ghosts that make you old before your time
 F C Em Am
 It's too easy to get left behind.
