

Keb' Mo' - Tell Everybody I Know

Tom: G

"well I love my baby, gonna tell everybody I know"

Tabbed By: Alex Schwer (TheCream)

You can mix it up with some A7's and D7's to add color to it.

Intro: A

Verse:

Then there's that part where it goes "other women don't mean a thing.."

These are the main chords. It's A blues progression. They're finger picked and sometimes

C D A C D E x 3

A chord has almost a bouncy, "reggae feel" to it. It's pretty much A to D. and then it get's to the part of (below) you throw in the E chord:

Then it's just a back to the verse. The Solo is in A minor major. That's pretty much

E D A
