

Kelley Stoltz / Nicki Bluhm - No Wrong Way Home

Tom: C

I. PAI

I hope your dreams, don't feel small and when the wind begins to rise, I hope your mast stands straight and tall
 these are fragile times, we blur the lines
 In the unlikeliest of places, we all find a little grace
 ?and there's no wrong way home

One winter coat, two wild eyes.
 All the unspoken love that you're carrying inside these ain't the calmest days, and you like it that way But won't you rest a while in the storm's peaceful eye

Chorus:

It ain't where you been, but where you're going to It's not where you're from, but where you belong
 and there's no wrong way home
 there's no wrong way home

The spiraled shell, the golden mean you see you're just the sum of those who've been down this road before?you were expecting more?
 It won't hurt to rest a while?the soft shoulder by your side.

Chorus:

It ain't where you been, but where you're going to It's not where you're from, but where you belong
 and there's no wrong way home
 there's no wrong way home

II. FILHA

(Tom muda para A)

One braid for laughter, and one braid for fear
 I tied 'em both together, cuz it was always windy here?
 and don't take this wrong, but I never knew were you watching over me, or was I watching over you..?

Chorus:

It ain't where you been, but where you're going to It's not where you're from, but where you belong
 and there's no wrong way home
 there's no wrong way home

IV. CONCLUSÃO

So I hope your plans accounted for rain
 I hope you stashed a few dreams where you might find them once again
 these are the best of days, it never feels that way but its in the rearview mirror, that these things become clearer
 and there's no wrong way home
 there's no wrong way home
