

Kelly Clarkson - All I Know

Tom: C

This is a new song performed on the last stop of Kelly's Hazel Eyes Tour (San Jose, CA ).

She sang it with one acoustic guitar, played by Danny. These chorus are the exact chords, as given to me by Danny Weissfeld who wrote the guitar part for it. From Danny:

"these are the basic chords to the song. it's the simplest way to play it, i add a few passing chords and alternate positions, but they are not crucial for playing the song."
