

Ken Ashcorp - Blue

Tom: Eb
Intro: 2x: Fm Eb Eb Bb

Verse 1:
Fingers trace your skin
All your cliffs and peaks
And your hair it flows like waterfalls
Wanna give some color back to your cheeks

Verse 2:
Fingers intertwine
As you tell me you can't take it any more
Let our hearts and souls combine
While hell is knocking at our door

Chorus:
Mermaid, sing to me
He don't love you like I do
He won't take your pain away
You know it's true
I wanna see you smile, wanna see you cry
Oh, you're such a fool
We should get some bruises falling in love
'Cause I love it when you're blue
( Fm Eb Eb Bb )

Verse 3:
Yeah, it's making me mad
Knowing I can treat you better than he could
And your tears they flow like waterfalls
And I don't think they should

Verse 4:
Fm Eb Eb Bb

Yeah, it's okay to smile
Even if inside it's tearing you apart
N.C.
No he'll never love you in the way that I do
Why'd you go and give someone like that your heart?

Chorus:
Mermaid, sing to me
He don't love you like I do
He won't take your pain away
You know it's true
I wanna see you smile, wanna see you cry
Oh, you're such a fool
We should get some bruises falling in love
'Cause I love it when you're blue
( Fm Eb Eb Bb )

Outro:
( Ab Eb Eb Bb )
(Underneath our skin our blood runs blue)
Our blood runs blue
(No he'll never love you like I do)
I still love you
And what am I to say?
What was I supposed to say?
What am I to say?
Just tell me what to say
What am I supposed to say?
Ab
What am I to say?
Ab
We threw it all away
And we're still blue
