

Kenny Chesney - Beer In Mexico

Tom: D

Chords: D D G Em A

^D Starin' out into the wild blue yonder
^G So many thoughts to sit and ponder
^D 'Bout life and love and lack of ^G And this emptiness in my heart
^D Too old to be wild and free still ^G Too young to be over the hill
^D Should I try to grow up
^D But who knows where to start

Chorus

So I'll just ...
^D Sit right here, have another beer in Mexico
^D Do my best to waste another day
^D Sit right here and have another beer in Mexico
^{Em} Let the warm air melt these blues away

^D Sun comes up and sun sinks down
^G And I seen 'em both in this tourist town
^D Up for days in a rage
^G Just tryin' to search my soul

^D From the answers and the reasons why
^G I'm at these crossroads in my life
^D And I really don't know
^D Which way to go
 Chorus
 So I'll just ...
^D Sit right here, have another beer in Mexico
^D Do my best to waste another day
^D Sit right here and have another beer in Mexico
^{Em} Let the warm air melt these blues away

Bridge

Maybe I'll settle down, get married
 Or stay single and stay free
 Which road I travel
 Is still a mystery to me

Chorus

So I'll just ...
^D Sit right here, have another beer in Mexico
^D Do my best to waste another day
^D Sit right here and have another beer in Mexico
^{Em} Let the warm air melt these blues away
 Down in Mexico? D D G
