

Kenny Chesney - Old Blue Chair

Tom: Gb

(com acordes na forma de
Capostrate na 2ª casa
CAPO 2

Intro: E A B7 E

E
There's a blue rocking chair

A sittin in the sand

E
weathered by the storms

B7
and well oiled hands

E
It sways back and forth

A
with the help of the winds

Gbm
it seems to always be there

B7
like an old trusty friend

A
I've read a lot of books

B7
wrote a few songs

E looked at my life

E
where it's goin', where it's gone

A B7
I've seen the world through a bus windshield

A
but nothing compares to the way that I see it

B7
to the way that I see it

A B7
to the way that I see it when i sit

(NC) E A B7 E
in that ol' blue chair

E
From that chair I've caught

A
a few fish and some rays

E
and I've watched boats sail

B7
in and out of cinnamon bay

E)

E
I've let go of a lover

A
who took a piece of my heart

Gbm
and prayed many times for forgiveness

B7
and a brand-new start

A
I've read a lot of books

B7
wrote a few songs

E
looked at my life

E
where it's goin', where it's gone

A B7
I've seen the world through a bus windshield

A
but nothing compares to the way that I see it

B7
to the way that I see it

A B7
to the way that I see it when i sit

(NC) E
in that ol' blue chair

A
That chair was my bed one new years night

E
when i passed out from too much Malibu and died

A
and I woke to a hundred mosquito bites

B7
I swear

A B7
got 'em all sittin' right there

(NC) E A
in that ol' blue chair

E
There's a blue rockin' chair

A
sittin in the sand

B7 A weathered by the storms and

(NC) E A B7 E
well oiled hands

Acordes

