Kenny Chesney - Old Blue Chair

Tom: Gb I've let go of a lover E) (com acordes na forma de Capostraste na 2ª casa who took a piece of my heart CAPO 2 Gbm Intro: E A B7 E and prayed many times for forgiveness B7 and a brand-new start There's a blue rocking chair sittin in the sand I've read a lot of books Е weathered by the storms B7 wrote a few songs B7 and well oiled hands looked at my life It sways back and forth where it's goin', where it's gone Α with the help of the winds R7 I've seen the world through a bus windshield Gbm it seems to always be there but nothing compares to the way that I see it B7 like an old trusty friend B7 to the way that I see it B7 I've read a lot of books to the way that I see it when i sit B7 (NC) F wrote a few songs in that ol' blue chair looked at my life That chair was my bed one new years night where it's goin', where it's gone R7 when i passed out from too much Malibu and died I've seen the world through a bus windshield and I woke to a hundred mosquito bites but nothing compares to the way that I see it B7 B7 I swear to the way that I see it B7 Α got 'em all sittin' right there R7 to the way that I see it when i sit (NC) E Α in that ol' blue chair (NC)E A B7 E in that ol' blue chair There's a blue rockin' chair From that chair I've caught sittin in the sand Α a few fish and some rays B7 Α weathered by the storms and F and I've watched boats sail (NC) E A B7 E well oiled hands B7 in and out of cinnamon bay

Acordes

	Ψ.		5
			si Si
			ŭ Loĝ
			- - -
) ukulele-chords.con
			õ

Gbn

B7

ukulele-chords.com

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br