Am	If you see me out on the town
If you're going out with someone new	G
G	And it looks like I'm burning it down
I'm going out with someone too	F
F G	You won't ask and I won't say
I won't feel sorry for me, I'm getting drunk	G
Am	But in my heart I'm always somewhere with you
But I'd much rather be somewhere with you	Laughing loud on a carnival ride, yeah
Laughing loud on a carnival ride, yeah	Driving around on a Saturday night
Driving around on a Saturday night	G
G	You made fun of me for singing my song
You made fun of me for singing my song	Got a hotel room just to turn you on
Got a hotel room just to turn you on	F
F	You said pick me up at three a.m.
You said pick me up at three a.m.	You're fighting with your mom again
You're fighting with your mom again	G
G Am G	And I'd go, I'd go, I'd go
And I'd go, I'd go, Somewhere with you	Am
Am	I can go out every night of the week
I won't sit outside your house	G
G	Can go home with anybody I meet
And wait for the lights to go out	F G
F G	But it's just a temporary high 'cause when I close my eyes
Call up an ex to rescue me, climb in their bed Am When I'd much rather sleep somewhere with you Like we did on the beach last summer	Am G I'm somewhere with you, somewhere with you F
When the rain came down and we took cover	Somewhere with you
G	G
Down in your car, out by the pier	I'm somewhere with you
You laid me down, whispered in my ear F I hate my life, hold on to me Ah, if you ever decide to leave	(Am G F G) Am G I'm somewhere with you
G	Somewhere with you
Then I'll go, I'll go, I'll go	G
Am I can go out every night of the week G Can go home with anybody I meet	Somewhere with you (Am G F G)
