Tom: E
Intro: E A E A

E
It's a single star wavin', so proud and tal
A
It's the smell of gun powder on the Alamo walls
Dbm B
A red Corpus sunset, hill country bluebonnets
A B
Brisket at Cooper's, Joe T's enchiladas
E
It's floatin' the Frío, cold beer in hand
Dbm
It's a couple two steppin to a twin fiddle band
B
A B
It's a Saturday rodeo, Friday night lights, the prettiest
girls you ever seen in your life
A
For those who E
B
The mud on the Brazos and Red Rivers run through our blood
Dbm
Let the world know
A E B
We'll fight to the death, for the land and the people we love
Dbm
Gather around friends E
A B
It's time for a toast, let us raise up a cold one together
E A
To Texas forever

E
From the pines to the mountains
The coast to the Plains
A
There's a pride down inside us, that's hard to explain
Dbm B
If ever you were one, then always you'll be
A B
You may wander this world, but your heart never leaves
E
All these cowboys still saddle their horses to ride
Dbm
Out here there's just some things that won't ever die
B
Like a ghost in the alley of some 6th St bar
A B
You can still hear the ring in' of Stevie's guitar
A
For those who E
B
The mud on the Brazos and Red Rivers run through our blood
Dbm
Let the world know
A E B
We'll fight to the death, for the land and the people we love
