

Killstation - Exelsior

G tom:

Drive me out now, tear my love down
 Thinking out loud, let my thoughts drown
 Break me down now, take my heart out
 Run from your town, lost in my doubt
 I know it's hard to leave the promise that I wish I made
 I know it's hard to dream, you saw the world, I'm far away
 More than what I need, believe me, I don't wanna wait
 Know I'm gonna bleed, I'm proof enough the world will break
 I'm lost without your love
 Don't trust the man I was
 She was the only drug
 That burned away my flaws
 I'm lost without your love
 Don't trust the man I was

She was the only drug
 That burned away my flaws
 She burned away my flaws
 You burned away my flaws
 She burned away my flaws
 Everything never could be like it was
 Living life without love was so dark, it's so real
 Even under the sun I've been freezing
 Believe me, I'm losing my trust
 Never seen how you leave me, take my heart and run
 I'll follow you forever until I catch up
 Breaking me into pieces, you take what you want
 Never thought I'd be dreaming of you for this long
 So fucking long
 (Where have you gone?)
 I'm lost without your love
 (Where have you gone?)
 She was the only drug
 That burned away my flaws
