

King Gizzard & The Lizard Wizard - Digital Black

Tom: A

Intro: Di-gi-tal, oh!

[Verse 1]

Despondent, lugubrious, no future

We turned our bodies to computer

We are out of nature, abuser

No future, computer, abuser

[Chorus 1]

I can tell every day I stay, all the whiteness turns to grey

All the grey to Cimmerian, as the black is setting in

Digital black, oh

[Verse 2]

We've sunken into our illusion

We fashion colossal confusion

I am the word of the last human

Illusion, confusion, last human

[Chorus 2]

I can see it all around the land, I can feel it in the back of my hand

I can hear a roaring silence, of the murky [?]

I've heard the dark beast has said that the world is like a brittle ant

He can crush it with only breath, and he can bring a black wave of death

Digital black

[Han-Tyumi]

The last who feels pain from the wound... oh!

[Bridge]

No future, computer, abuser, digital black

Illusion, confusion, last human, digi-digi-digi

[Chorus 1]

I can tell every day I stay, all the whiteness turns to grey

All the grey to Cimmerian, as the black is setting in

Di-gi-tal
