

King Gizzard & The Lizard Wizard - Digital Black

Tom: A
Intro: Di-gi-tal, oh!

[Chorus 2]

I can see it all around the land, I can feel it in the back of my hand

[Verse 1]

Despondent, lugubrious, no future

I can hear a roaring silence, of the murky [?]

We turned our bodies to computer

I've heard the dark beast has said that the world is like a brittle ant

We are out of nature, abuser

He can crush it with only breath, and he can bring a black wave of death

No future, computer, abuser

Digital black

[Chorus 1]

I can tell every day I stay, all the whiteness turns to grey [Han-Tyumi]

All the grey to Cimmerian, as the black is setting in

The last who feels pain from the wound... oh!

Digital black, oh

[Bridge]

No future, computer, abuser, digital black

[Verse 2]

We've sunken into our illusion

Illusion, confusion, last human, digi-digi-digi

We fashion colossal confusion

[Chorus 1]

I am the word of the last human

I can tell every day I stay, all the whiteness turns to grey
All the grey to Cimmerian, as the black is setting in

Illusion, confusion, last human

Di-gi-tal
