D Bm
You called me after midnight
A G
Must have been three years since we last spoke
D Bm
I slowly tried to bring back
A G
The image of your face from the memories so old

D Bm
I tried so hard to follow
A G
But didn't catch the half of what had gone wrong
D Bm A G
Said "I don't know what I can save you from"
D Bm A G
I don't know what I can save you from

D Bm	I
I asked you to come over, and within half an hour $\ensuremath{\text{\textbf{G}}}$
You were at my door
D Bm
I had never really known you
A G
But I realized that the one you were before Bm
Had changed into somebody for whom
A Em
I wouldn't mind to put the kettle on
A Em G Gm
Still I don't know what I can save you from
A Em G	Α
I don't know what I can save you from
I don't know what I can save you from
I don't know what I can save you from
I don't know what I can save you from
I don't know what I can save you from
